

Ms Geary—I can assure you that Telecom is doing everything it can to do that as quickly as possible.

Senator BOSWELL—I turn to the Australian Federal Police report. Senator Bolkus said, 'I am assured by the Australian Federal Police that, as indicated in the Senate on Monday 17 October, the DPP advice had little or no effect on the final outcome of the AFP investigation.' This advice is contrary to that provided to Ann Garms by the investigating office of the Australian Federal Police. The Australian Federal Police is getting advice that Telecom has a shield of the Crown, so it could not be prosecuted. It is quite obvious to me that, if that is your legal advice, then it is wrong.

Mr [unclear]—I will address that because I have some personal knowledge of it. I am not sure where this allegation emanated from. There was never a period of time when Telecom either received advice or asserted a position that it had a shield of the Crown. I do not know who is asserting that, but it is nonsense to do so.

Senator BOSWELL—I would hope so.

Mr [unclear]—What the Australian Federal Police have concluded and what the DPP have concluded is something that we are not privy to. We have given full cooperation in the Australian Federal Police investigation, to the extent that we were lawfully able to do so—which was almost total. They interviewed whoever they wanted to interview, they gained access to documents that they requested. There was only one issue of some tapes that they had a problem getting hold of. We are not privy to the result of that investigation. We are not privy to what their recommendation was—or their report, if they did not make a recommendation to the DPP, and we are not privy to what the DPP deliberations are.

Senator BOSWELL—Why did Telecom advise the Commonwealth Ombudsman that Telecom withheld FOI documents from Alan Smith because Alan Smith provided Telecom FOI documents to the Australian Federal Police during their investigation?

Ms Geary—Could you please repeat that?

Senator BOSWELL—Why did Telecom advise the Commonwealth Ombudsman that Telecom withheld FOI documents from Alan Smith because Alan Smith provided Telecom FOI documents to the Australian Federal Police during their investigation?

Ms Geary—I am not aware that that has been said. I can take that on notice.

Senator BOSWELL—Mr Krasnostein would probably be able to—

Mr Krasnostein—No, I am not aware of who at Telecom made that statement. I would be happy to take it on notice unless you have some information that sheds some light on it.

Senator BOSWELL—All right, I will do that. I will ask you another question. Telecom is cooperating fully with the Australian Federal Police inquiry. Why would Telecom withhold vital documents from the AFP? Also, why would Telecom penalise COT members for providing documents to the AFP which substantiate that Telecom had conducted unauthorised interceptions of COT members' communications and subsequently dealt in the intercepted information by providing that information to Telecom's external legal advisers and others?

Mr [unclear]—Could you ask that question again?

Senator BOSWELL—You may take it on notice. It will be on the record.

Mr [unclear]—I might add that—and I am sure the Australian Federal Police will confirm this to you—we had total cooperation with the Australian Federal Police. They were able to interview whatever staff they wanted to and they were given free and unrestricted access to a document room containing all the documents they wanted. They photocopied whatever they wanted. Inspector Penrose, who conducted the investigation, said to me that we cooperated fully and freely, and I do not know where an allegation would come from that there has been anything but total cooperation with the Australian Federal Police.

Senator BOSWELL—Thank you very much.

Senator TIERNEY—I refer to a question I put on notice in the Senate on 10 October concerning South West technical day under The service. This is Wales.

... is total records be being replaced is to transfer zero level transmiss principles adequatel stuff ...

I will be about the various of all, I internal relation standard training service? southern
