IMPORTANT

(1) You are informed that this continuous certificate of service shall be produced and handed to the Superintendent or Consul at the port where you leave the vessel, so that the engagement column in the Articles of Agreement, and the certificate given into the safe keeping of the Master.

(2) Should you desert or fail to join, your book will be retained by the Superintendent or Consul at the port where you left the vessel for a fortnight from the date of the vessel's leaving, of which time it will be forwarded to the Registrar General of Shipping and Seamen, Cardiff. Upon your applying for your book to be returned to you, containing an entry in the discharge and engagement columns that the voyage was not completed; but if you have returned through misconduct, failed to join your ship, the Ministry of Transport may, under Sec. 65 (2) of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1906, withhold your book for such period as they think fit, and may refuse to furnish you with copies of your certificates of discharge or certified extracts of any part of your service and character.

(3) Should you lose this book otherwise than by wreck, you shall not obtain a new one until your next discharge, and a fee will be payable; but you may obtain at once, by applying on Form Discharge to the Registrar General of Shipping and Seamen, and forwarding them an extract from the Agreements and Official Log Books of the vessel in which you served, showing service and character.

NOTE.—Should this Certificate come into the possession of any person other than the holder, it does not belong, it should be handed to the Superintendent of the nearest Marine Office, or be transmitted to the Registrar General of Shipping and Seamen, Llantrisant Road, Cardiff, postage unpaid.
